BASI NEWS November 2020

A Christmas event for all members will be taking place shortly. We are sourcing a venue for this, and further information will be e-mailed once that has been finalised

BASI | Committee News:

There have been recent changes to the BASi Committee with Barry Gill, Gayle Van Der Veen and Robyn Christoffel Resigning from their positions. We thank Barry, Gayle and Robyn for their contributions and wish them well in their future endeavours. They will continue as valued members and volunteers of BASi.

The current Committee roles are:

Dan Frost- President and Newsletter Editor

Maureen Wilson- Vice President and Acting Secretary

John Stone joins us as Treasurer and we sincerely thank him for taking on this important role

Deb Easton - Workshop Coordinator, Assistant Gallery Coordinator and Acting Volunteer Coordinator

Betty Shannon - Membership Coordinator

Sharon Frost- Gallery, Media and Marketing Coordinator

Volunteers are the life blood of BASi, we are always looking for extras and there are many jobs to suit your skills and availability. If you would like to discuss this further please contact Deb to have a chat. Training is available at no cost to you. A Volunteer Blue Card will be applied for on your behalf.

We have just said farewell to Doug Wakefield's thought provoking exhibition, "2020:A Year of Perfect Vision". We thank Doug for bringing this very successful exhibition to our Gallery and look forward to future events with Doug. In case you missed it here is a link to the gallery website "walk through" for you to enjoy. Wakefield's

"2020: THE YEAR OF PERFECT VISION"

YOUR OPPORTUNITY FOR A REGIONAL BIG GALLERY EXPERIENCE

Kalbar artist and philosopher, Doug Wakefield, takes pleasure in inviting you to his latest solo art exhibition. The show captures a critic's observation from a few years ago: "Doug Wakefield's art is bound for gallery walls, because I sure as Hell don't want it on mine!"

As Doug happily points out: "...and isn't this true of so many visits to galleries? We are glad the gallery is there to display the strangeness of some artistic endeavour, and enjoy the opportunity to absorb and engage with the dialogue the works may propagate, but – when it all is said and done – will not wish to take it home with us..."

Free admission

28 October to
28 November, 2020
(10am to 4pm Wednesday to Sunday)

Our next exhibition, Fire in Our Community is currently being installed and will open on the 2nd December, 2020. Watch out on our facebook and website for further details and images.

Exhibitions are currently being confirmed for 2021 and 2020 and there are a couple of spots left, so if you know of any interested artist who may wish to hold an exhibition, you can refer them to the Gallery Coordination Team who will arrange for an application pack to be sent out. Sharon and Deb can be contacted through the galleries email address.
